Memorial Chalice Program

As you are aware that upon the death of a Sir Knight our Assembly procures and has engraved with the Sir Knights name a Memorial Chalice and Paten which is given to the family for donation to a parish, priest or religious order.

In the past Chalices have been given to local parishes, priests to include newly ordained Priest, Missionaries of the Precious Blood, Archdiocese of the Military Services, USA and to Supreme for their Chalices for Cuba project.

Have you given it any thought on where you would like your Chalice to go? If so, have you let you family know and notified the Assembly? By answering positive to this question this would assist the Assembly and your family upon your passing.

Also, you are aware that our Assembly maintains a fund to purchase Chalices. If you wish to donate to this fund, please contact our Faithful Comptroller, Mark Lilly.
